Charles Wollen Escapes Penitentiary By Paying $4,000 For Support of Victim's Widow and Thirteen Children.

Having raised $4,000 for the support of the widow and children of Charles Wollen, Fred Elwyn of Woodstock escaped a four year term in the Clinton state prison at Dannemora for killing Mr. Wollen with his automobile at Woodstock last October, but in suspending the execution of the prison sentence Judge Joseph house at noon for the Elwyn case. Elwyn's attorney, William H. Grogan, presented a certified check for $4,000 which was the amount determined on as the financial compensation to be paid by Elwyn toward the support of Mrs. Wolven and her children.

Elwyn, in answer to the usual questions, said he was a laborer, 32 years old, was born and lived at Woodstock, can read and write, is married, his parents are living, he had not been convicted before, had had opportunities for religious instruction in the Protestant faith.

Judge Fowler in passing sentence said Elwyn had made restitution to compensate her for her loss. The money had not been raised from an insurance company so that it had his family to get it, and therefore was punishment. While insurance could be obtained against civil liability, no insurance could be had against criminal liability. Restitution in lieu of real imprisonment was not to be future real imprisonment would be the rule. But he felt that the defendant had been punished by the offer required by him and his family to raise the money to make financial restitution to Mrs. Wolven. The sentence of the court was that the defendant be imprisoned in the Clinton state prison at Dannemora for a term of four years, but in view of the court's feeling in the matter and because of the restitution which had been made and in view of the further fact that this was the first conviction of its kind in Ulster county, the execution of the sentence was suspended. _____

Court then adjourned to court next morning.

The check for $4,000 will be turned over to Mrs. Wolven for the support of herself and her thirteen children.

Ashaway, R. There is nothing like it to heal the skin."—Mrs. Charles A. Brown, Ashaway, R. I.

The reason Sykes Comfort Powder is so successful in such cases is because it contains six healing, antiseptic ingredients not found in ordinary talcums. For twenty years it has been used and endorsed by physicians and mothers, and nurses call it "A Healing Wonder."

UNDERNEATH THE CITY HALL DOME

Just Another Version of Why Girls Leave Home—Why Women Talk Less in February Than at Any Other Time in the Year is Explained.

"Please sir, do you know where I can get a job?" asked a tiny little miss of the first one she met in the city hall corridor this morning.

"You had better run home to your folks instead of seeking a job," replied the one accosted.

"I can't," replied the girl, as a tear splashed its way down her cheek.

"You can't," queried the one accused in astonished tones, "why not?"

"Because I have run away from home," explained the little girl.

"What did you run away for?" asked the accosted one.

"My folks are all the time going to the movies," explained the girl, "and I have to go with them, and I don't like the movies."

"That's a new version of why girls leave home," murmured the accosted one to himself, and turning to the girl he said, "you can't land a job for you are too young, and the best thing you can do is to go back home."

"I do a lot of work home," explained the youngster, "for I help mama with the dishes and make up the beds and I do a lot of things."

"That may all be true," agreed the accosted one kindly, "but just the same are too young to get a working certificate, and no one will employ you unless you have one."

"Then I'll go home," said the little girl, "but you can tell the world that as soon as I get old enough I am going to get me one of them certificates."

"Life is sure a funny proposition," said a stranger, who had dropped in the hall in time to overhear the previous conversation.

"You said it," agreed the other.

"I tell you what," continued the stranger, "a lot of folks have got a limousine appetite on a flivver income."

"By your looks I should judge your ambition was to shun a bit of work," retorted the other smiling as he tried his hand at manufacturing a pun.

"You are what they call one of them humorous guys," retorted the saw-eyed stranger, "for I can tell by looking at you that you have an idea you would make one real hit on the stage, but take it from me the only stage you will ever get by on is an auto bus."

"That so," retorted the accosted one, growing somewhat hot under the collar.

"No use getting all heated up over it though," advised the saw-eyed one,
"for take it from me while life is but a stage a lot of us are nothing but bum actors, and you can count me as a horrible example. I started life with high ambitions, and now the highest I ever attain is seeking a free night's lodging in the lockup here."

"Well we all have to meet a certain amount of hard luck," said the accosted one in what was intended as a cheering tone of voice, "and so all you want to do is to buck up."

"Sure that's all," said the saw-eyed one rather sarcastically, "but talk is cheap, and that fact reminds me that women always talk less in February than at any other time in the year."

"Because it is two days shorter," explained the saw-eyed one with a grin, and he ambled off.

THE OFFICE CAT

By Janius

One Man's Perplexing Problem.

Dear Office Cat:

What has become of the automobile thieves who used to steal cars?

I've been reading the papers pretty carefully and every time I hear of a car being stolen I've hurried around there and left mine in that very spot. But up to date nobody has offered to take it. What would you advise me to do?

Psalm of Life.

From the Cradle To The Grave.
Carried;
Married;
Harried;
Buried.

Rather late to call your attention to it, but a column is only a column, and we can't publish everything in a day. But what we started out to say was that last Friday while it was raining and the streets were rather sloppy, we observed two girls cross the street. One of them rushed boldly across, while the other hesitated. One wore silk hose. The other one did not. Guess which one hesitated.

You are right.

It Ought To Be There, Anyhow.

The modest pussy willer Nods by the babbling brook;
We say so just for a filler—We haven't been down to look.

Every small town has a genius who imagines he can repair his own watch with a pocketknife.

A man likes to act bossy with his wife when they have company because he'll hafta roll over and play dead as soon as the aforesaid company leaves.

The average man's idea of home is a nice big easy chair, where he can sit with his feet on the library table and smoke, while his wife keeps an eye on the furnace and carries out the ashes.

A married rounder usually has a hard time trying to square himself.

A Little Over Two Feet.

Dear Office Cat:

What is the proper length of a girl's dress?

ANXIOUS MOTHER.

Judging by the hours many young men keep, they're all training to be night watchmen.

The new typist determined to make a good impression upon her chief. She turned up half an hour early and began tidying up the room. When that was done she examined her typewriter, discovered it in a shocking condition, found a bottle and gave it a thorough oiling.

While about it she examined all the other typewriters in the office and oiled them, too. There is nothing, she thought, like making oneself indispensable! Her chief arrived. He looked around him with an air of satisfaction and crossed to the man-tepiece. Then his smile changed to a frown. "Miss Smith," he said,
"have you seen my cough mixture?"

American Women.One might suppose that after the continued craze for the wearing of so much jewelry would be a reaction.
But this reaction has not come. The vogue for a great deal of jewelry does not fit in with the present-day standards of dress, which are of the simplest. It would appear that the love of barbaric ornamentation of the cave woman must find expression today as it did long ago. Jewelry, both with the Parisienne and the American woman, becomes more and more elaborate and an increasing number of pieces are worn at one time.The demand for novelties of all sorts as well as for jewelry still is great. It seems that no piece of jewelry can be too fantastic to find favor. The snake design still continues very fashionable.
The newest snake bracelets are made of diamonds and colored enamel. It is considered smart to wear a set of snake ornaments consisting of a bracelet and a belt made of gold and enamel, or the belt may be made entirely of gold.Beautiful necklaces also are shown in this same form composed entirely of diamonds with a huge diamond pendant suspended from the snake's mouth. The necklaces and bracelets are very flexible.The ideas exploited in purses are legion, not only in regard to the shape, the size and the material but the way in which different leathers and silks are put together. Flap envelopes are made almost like small writing cases.
These may be of the softest of leathers completely covered with elaborate silk embroidery. Both sides of the purses are alike. Black and white combinations frequently are seen in this type of purse, that is, the case may be of white leather with a scroll embroidery in black satin, or of black embroidered in white.New Lawn previous years to $1,000. At the same time they recommended that no money be appropriated for this association, giving money only to the Board of Child Welfare work. While $200 more was appropriated later, the recommendation for next year still stands. Why this action? Because they felt that the Board of Child Welfare would care for the children and it would be wasteful to have two child welfare organizations.

The Board of Child Welfare was created to care for widowed mothers and their children.

The work of the State Charities and Association committee is to serve as an assistant to the superintendent of the poor and other poor law officers in the care of children. Its special duties are to know all children supported by county and city, know their history before being taken, and their own abilities and to put them in places best suited to their needs. To investigate whenever asked, the condition of children to be brought into court in order that the background may be known before making definite plans for the future. To investigate conditions where complaint of improper care of children is made. To help and advise parents in every conceivable way. One can readily see if the supervisors do not contribute to the county agent's work, many children will lack the care and oversight that is given them by the county agent.

Mrs. Davis cited many instances where the county agent had been instrumental in caring for many needy children.

Mrs. Mac Kenzie, president of Orange county, gave a few words of greeting. Mrs. Townsend, recording secretary of Orange county, expressed her pleasure in being present.

The Rev. H. Brink of Gardiner brought greetings and placed emphasis on our united efforts.

The recording secretary was instructed to send a note of sympathy to Mrs. Rose, county secretary, who has recently lost her sister; also to Mrs. Conine, L. T. L. secretary, who recently lost her husband.

The afternoon session closed with the temperance doxology. The ladies of the Ellenville W. C. T. U. served a delicious dinner to all delegates and visitors between sessions.

Wednesday Evening.

The evening session was held in the M. E. Church and opened with singing, true, hearted, whole hearted and American.

Dr. George H. Smith led in prayer and read the Scripture lesson, a portion of the 5th chapter of Isaiah. We sang "The Son of God Goes Forth to War." The Rev. Mr. Dann, pastor of the church, extended greetings. We extend greetings because of our aims. You will soon be celebrating your 50th anniversary. It is a wonderful privilege to greet such an organization because of the work you have accomplished. Mr. Dann paid a glowing tribute to our founder, Frances E. Willard for the wonderful achievement accomplished. The main task is still before us, and we have great faith to go forward. We expect the W. C. T. U. to lead the war and may God bless you in your work. Do not lay down your arms till all is accomplished.

Mrs. Burton Wood favored us with a much appreciated solo.

Mrs. Mamie White Colvin of New York city, one of our state lecturers and organizers, gave the address of the evening. Mrs. Colvin headed no introduction to an Ulster county audience. Mrs. Colvin spoke of denominational prejudice being done away with; all denominations are now united and the women of the W. C. T. U. have done much in uniting of the churches. We have played a large part in bringing Christians together. The women of the world are banded together with one purpose. Mrs. Colvin spoke of the world Polio-slit petition with actually 7,000,000 signatures representing 11,000,000 women—the largest petition ever known. There is a difference between temperance and prohibition. Temperance is reclaiming the drunkard. We said we will work for prohibition to take the drink from men. We have done a great work among the children. Prohibition is its own great argument when the law is enforced. We have only reached comparatively few people. We must educate our people along temperance lines. Congress was asked to define what liquors were intoxicating. Volstead law defines this. Propaganda has come from France that beer and wine are not intoxicating. Mrs. Colvin cited several instances of testimony of prominent men that wine and beer do not intoxicate. We must keep up our educational propaganda that wine and beer do not intoxicate, but go further, and say that wine and beer are not good even as a medicine. We should impress these facts upon the people. There is a new Volstead bill to come up in Washington tomorrow. As have been asked why doesn't prohibition close the saloons? If it had been left to the women, it might be done. They would see that law was enforced. We as Americans are responsible for the shipment of intoxicants to foreign countries and these countries are looking to us for help.

Mrs. Colvin made an appeal for all women to identify themselves with the W. C. T. U. to the men to become honorary members. We must stand by the cause and get the right sort of officials elected. We want you to pray for prohibition in all its phases—to pray that men will enforce the law. Mrs. Colvin paid a tribute to Marie Nation for the aroused us to do our duty, that laws must be obeyed.

I ask you to help—I want you to give the biggest offering to this cause that it has ever known, for a slight offering of bills, because of the work it has done. We are going to stay on the job till the whole wide world is free. Mrs. Colvin held the close attention of her hearers. She has a wonderful memory and stated truths and facts, and she said all the latest news from Albany and Washington. We were indeed fortunate in securing such a powerful speaker. An offering was taken amounting to $21.25. Evening session closed with singing—"Lead on Oh, King Eternal"—and benediction by the Rev. Mr. Dann.

Thursday Morning.

Thursday morning's session opened with a service of song and praise, led by Mrs. Graham Hurd. "Give to The Muds Thy Tears" was sung. A number joined in sentence prayers. Several songs of praise were sung.

Minutes of afternoon and evening sessions were read by Mrs. Wells Weaver who was secretary pro tem, as Mrs. Palen returned home after the evening session. Minutes were adopted.

Suggestion was made that we combine the morning and afternoon sessions as so many were to take the 1 o'clock bus. Suggestion was opposed.

A symposium was led by Mrs. Young, vice-president, on the subject of Dollar Dues Budget—Will it Help? Only two unions have adopted $1 dues. Highland Union said some paid their dollar, others did not, as they paid just 30c dues and do without the state paper unless they choose to subscribe. Mrs. Hendricks said it was either members or money. By raising the dues we may lose members—by making the W. C. T. U. too commercial. Mrs. Hendricks stated that all treasurers must in the future send 40c per member when dues were returned to country. Suggestion was made to keep discussing $1 dues and then maybe all unions will fall in line. Dry Brook is the only union who has adopted the budget plan. The budget is entirely separated from the dues and is assessed to the unions. The dues are assessed to members. The budget can be raised through other channels.

These questions are optional with each local union. Mrs. Young sang "John Barleycorn—Goodbye." Mrs. Weaver read a paper prepared by Mrs. Helen A. Palmer who was unable to be present. The subject, "The Tobacco Question in Schools," was most interesting and instructive.

Mrs. Palmer stated that this subject is one of great importance to this and future generations, and is vital to our nation's life, because intellectuals are puffed carelessly away in smoke by millions of our citizens.

Mrs. Estelle has said: Education is our slogan, and our aim is to educate the youth of America concerning the harmful effects of nicotine and other narcotics.

The public school is our logical field and the educational laws of every state require the teaching of the harmful effects of tobacco and nicotine. Let us help the teachers all we can by supplying them with state tobacco laws, anti-tobacco literature, blotters and pledges, leaflets and statistics.

No one has found a disease that can be cured by the use of tobacco, but medical records show that thousands of cases of diseases of the nervous system, the heart, throat and lungs, are directly caused by its use. Careful statistics kept by impartial observers prove that the use of tobacco retards the growth of a boy, both physically and mentally, and the non-smoking students average higher in the classroom and athletics and also have a higher moral standard and sense of honor above their smoking contemporaries.

Many helpless children are obliged to breathe the poisoned atmosphere from their birth, and have never developed into healthy and moral men and women. Our children should surely have the protection and consideration vouchsafed to them which is given to dogs shows where smoking is not allowed because it hurts the dogs. Mrs. Palmer's paper was most excellent.

Mrs. L. W. Weed gave us some well-thought-out reasons why the W. C. T. U. women should visit the schools.

Schools are next in importance to the churches. In early years the mind is more susceptible to impressions. It is to be regretted that the Bible has been allowed to be taken out of our schools. Parents should visit the schools and acquaint themselves with conditions in schools. We have been lax in our efforts in scientific temperance instruction in schools. We should teach our children that whatever injures the body in any way is temperate. The world has taught many useful lessons as well as sad. The number of young men refused in the draft was appalling. Someone was responsible for lack of instruction as to the care of the body.

The fight is still on. Let us hope for ultimate victory. Let us be thankful for the efforts of our former crusaders and continue hopeful for coming tomorrow.

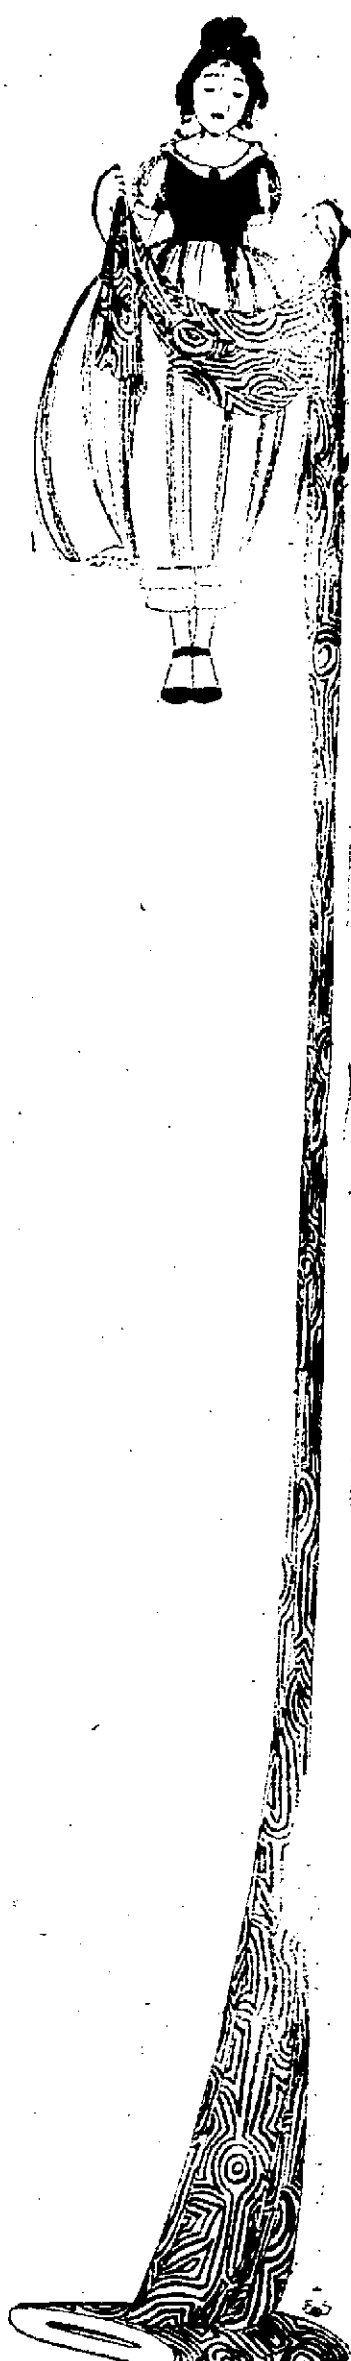

Mrs. Bell led in a discussion, "How to Increase Our Membership in Ulster County."

Mrs. Bell gave a list of convincing reasons why women should join the W. C. T. U., suggested in the May number of our state paper, "Temperance Work."

Many others took part in this discussion. The resolution committee presented the following resolutions which were adopted: Since to every child belongs the right to be well born; to be educated; to be protected from child labor; to be morally safeguarded; to be spiritually trained; therefore: Be it resolved, that we give our loyal support to this department in all its phases.

We view with great regret and deep concern the numerous attempts that are being made to commercialize the Sabbath and to profane it by professional baseball games, movies, pictures and theatrical performances. The finger of divinity has written that the Sabbath be a holy day and not a holiday, and the law of man should never attempt to supersede the law of God. Sabbath desecration seriously threatens the stability of our nation. To keep the Sabbath holy is a foundation stone upon which the strength of individuals, communities and nations must rest. Justice McLean of the U. S. Supreme Court has well said: "Where there is no Christian Sabbath, there is no Christian morality, and without this, free institutions cannot long be sustained."

Resolved: That in view of the splendid help that has come to our rescue from the loyal attitude of God's children in having the 2.25c beer bill repealed and pushing forward

EVA FERRINE HARE, County Superintendent of Publicity.

Resolved: That we extend our heartfelt thanks to the members of the W. C. T. U. of Ellenville for their royal welcome and gracious hospitality; to the chairman of the entertainment committee and her efficient helpers for their untiring efforts for our comfort; to those who have so warmly welcomed us; to Mrs. DeVany, pianist, and those who have made the musical program such a source of pleasure to the pastors of the churches for their words of encouragement and spirit of cooperation; to all who have contributed to the pleasure and success of this institute.

Mrs. Alice Stevens of Tallison gave a most inspiring and helpful Bible reading, drawing many lessons from various incidents occurring on or near the mountain tops, both in the Old and New Testaments.

Mrs. Young and Mrs. DeVany very fittingly sang a duet entitled, "Where the May Lead Me, I Will Go."

All present joined in singing "The White Ribbon Star Spangled Banner," and the institute was declared adjourned.

Said Boston was amazed the other day when it saw Miss Corbridge, a woman riding through the principal streets of the city on the old "boneshaker" shown in the above photo. It was quite the latest on bicycles in 1895 and will be ridden in a cycle race in Boston this month.

BISHOP PREACHED AT CONFIRMATION

The Right Rev. Hiram Hulise, Advices Remarkable Class of 26 At St. John's Church—As Usual, His Message Was Simple But Vital.

"Be of Good Cheer. I Have Overcome The World." Those were the words of the text of the confirmation sermon preached by the Right Rev. Hiram Hulise, bishop of Cuba, at St. John's Episcopal church, this city, Sunday morning, following the confirmation of twenty-six persons. In many ways the class which received the laying on of hands was a remarkable one.
Out of the twenty-six twelve members were boys and four were men.
Bishop Hulise has many friends in St. John's parish which he visited many times when he was the archdeacon of Orange, and always he has had a vital, simple, spiritual message for his hearers.

The bishop said that the words of his text were spoken by the savior of the world and the representative of mankind; the hero of humanity. As the representative of mankind he spoke them at a time which seemed to be his time of deat and they were spoken to cheer his followers then and they may still cheer us today. The world had ried in every way to overcome him, by blandishments and wiles but being unsuccessful it was then trying force and that too was unsucces-ful. He overcame the world, but not for himself alone but as king and hero for all of his followers during all time.

Those just confirmed were warned never to be afraid that their aspirations or struggles would be conquered by the world, for Christ and overcome the world for them.
Bishop Hulise showed that there were two ways in which to bring all men to acknowledge the King and His Kingdom.

One was the extensive way of missions, taking the good news of the conquering king out into all the world, but for this task only some seemed to be called. The intensive way—the other of the two ways—was the making Christ and His Kingdom supreme in all affairs of life and every day.

Talk.

Self is the easiest topic of conversation there is, and usually it is the dullest.

volunteer firemen's organization he served as an active member in the who was for some time a chief engineer of the Kingston fire depart-builder at Whitehall, N. Y., and most respected citizen of that city, died at his home there on Saturday, May 14. He had been in ill health for several months. Mr. Ryan was a former resident of this city, having been born in Ireland and coming to the United States with his parents when he was three years of age. He went to school in Poughkeepsie, and when a small boy he, like a number of other boys who became successful in after life, started a boating career on the Old Delaware & Hudson canal which he followed for several years. About 1882 Mr.

Ryan was made agent for the Lake Champlain Transportation Company, with offices in the Cornell Steamboat Company building on Ferry street, succeeding James E. Eaton. In 1886 he moved to Whitehall where he engaged in the grocery business having a large patronage from the boatmen. Later he entered the boat building business at Whitehall that grew on a large scale and which he continued with his son, William Ryan, until the time of his death.
He made friends of all with whom he did business because of his integrity and honesty. His wife and son, William J. Ryan, survive; also a sister, Mary James, who is of the Order of the Sisters of Charities.
The funeral services were held at Whitehall this morning and the remains will arrive on the West Shore train from Albany at 5:10 o'clock this afternoon for interment in the family plot in St. Mary's cemetery.

RAY
An Old
Fashioned
Boy
@Paramount Picture

Such an easy-going, honest soul, that all his friends made him their shock-absorber.

So, of course, when a skittish wife ran away, she sent her three "darlings" to Bachelor Charlie.

Then the measles, a quarantining, a jealous husband and a scandalized sweetheart set in, and You'll say Charles had a hard of a time.

PERSHING LAUDS "Y" WAR WORK

General John J. Pershing, in his address Tuesday evening at the thirty-fourth annual dinner of the International Committee of the Young Men's Christian Association at the Waldorf-Astoria, praised the work of the association at home and overseas. He was the guest of honor and principal speaker.

One thousand persons attended the dinner. Mayor Canfield, president of the local association, attended as representative of the Kingston association. Alfred Marling was toastmaster. John R. Mott, general secretary of the International Committee, spoke of the work of the Y. M. C. A. during the World War.

General Pershing was given a tremendous ovation when he rose to speak. He told of his experiences with "Y" men in the Philippines, on the Mexican border and in France, and declared that it was overseas that he came in closest touch with the association workers. He said the Y. M. C. A. organization expanded to meet the needs of the A. E. F., and told how the association had taken charge of the army canteens at his request.

General Pershing was outspoken in saying that some of the criticism directed against the Y. M. C. A. because of the alleged shortcomings in France, was unjust, and he made it plain that organizations of a rival nature hastened to take advantage of this criticism. He explained that the Y. M. C. A. had taken charge of the army canteens at his direction, and that the inability of the Y. M. C. A. to provide canteens with adequate supplies was due, first, to the fact that the tonnage originally allotted to the Y. M. C. A. had to be decreased as tonnage became more scarce, and to the difficulty of increasing its personnel with efficient workers to keep pace with the arrivals of forces in France.

"We all had our hands very full in those trying days. The army had to be organized, and a great general staff had to be built up to handle the multitude of details as to plans of operations, supply and transportation. It was in the midst of these preparations that I called up Mr. Carter and asked the Y. M. C. A. to take charge of the army canteens to follow our troops. He responded promptly and entered upon the work as a duty."

Referring to the difficult transportation situation and other obstacles met by the organization, General Pershing said: "All these things were a tremendous handicap, and when its work came to be compared with that of other welfare organizations operating with far less responsibility and covering only special areas, there arose some unjust criticism of which other organizations too often took advantage. But as a matter of fact, this feature of the work of the Y. M. C. A. deserves great praise, and I should like to express here in this presence my deep appreciation of the results obtained."

BROADWAY SIDEWALK

Subject of Complaint—Young Lady Has Had Fall.

Kingston, N. Y., May 14, 1921. Editor, The Freeman:

I wish to call the attention of the mayor and common council to the bad condition of the sidewalk on Broadway, from the Strand to Albany avenue. There are several places unsafe for one to walk after nightfall and a number have already fell with no worse results other than had bruises. Last Thursday evening, May 12, a party of young people were coming down just below Gildersleeve's, and one young lady, Miss Claudia B. Welles, stepped into a bad drunken hole, which threw her with such force that she fell across the curb into the street and was picked up by her companions nearly dead. No bones were broken but many bruises. The wonder is how she escaped in not having her head crushed on the stones?
